A Bible study on the names of God provides the Bible student with an insight into the nature of God. The names of God found in scripture each tell us something about his nature and his relationship to his children. El Shaddai says he is all powerful. Jehovah Jira tells us of his provision. He is our healer in Jehovah Ropha and The Good Shepherd in Jehovah Raah. Adonai tells of his Lordship and Yahweh Shua (Yeshua) speaks of his salvation. Some Bible studies about the names of God almost imbue them with magical powers. That was exactly what God did not want. That's why the name he gave himself was simply Yahweh or "I AM." No, these names of God are not magical, they are, however, a way for us to understand his nature and most importantly God's relationship with his children.

In this Bible study series, we look at fourteen names of God. Each name advances our knowledge of God's nature. Each name is a bit of theology reduced to a single word.

This Bible study takes a discovery approach. Included in each lesson is a short commentary, followed by some scriptures and study questions. The study is appropriate for either individual or small group study.
