Theatre Profiles 11: The Illustrated Guide to America's Nonprofit Professional Theatre

One of a series of large illustrated paperbacks documenting the exciting world of the non-profit professional theater movement in the U.S. through 22 seasons. The New York Times described it as " A virtual road atlas of serious theater in America" & Backstage said " A book you should readily keep at hand if you have any interest at all in regional theaters". It includes names of artistic and managing directors, theater addresses and phone numbers , Actor's Equity Association contracts, Operating expenses, performance season and facilities, playwrights, directors & designers for every production 7 a complete list of plays produced from 1991 to 1993. It includes more than 230 photos & lists literally thousands of productions seen in 39 states & the District of Columbia. This edition has 238 theaters included & each theater includes an artistic director's statement of purpose and a production photo. Additionally a valuable index cross references 7,500 artists & administrators and a separate index includes 2400 play titles & a regional index lists the theaters by state. Published in 1994 for $21.95 this paperback is 45 pages in length & over-sized 8 1/2" by 11". A valuable reference.
