A Message to You will motivate the reader who has arrived at major crossroads in life and is in pursuit of understanding why they exist. Once you begin to read A Message to You it will be difficult to not finish its entirety.

The richest and most powerful person can grow bored with day-to-day routines and unrewarding relationships. If not cautious we can engage in idle thoughts that lurk to seize the opportunity to manifest; causing utter catastrophe in our lives. Overtime this way of existence becomes the catalyst for depression and can lead to self-destruction for many.

The content of this book was composed to stimulate prayer and meditation in order for one to discover their purpose and spiritual gifts which have been ordained by our Creator. Through the Author's exercises the reader is encouraged to speak each prayer and journal their thoughts.

Once the reader has discovered their call beyond serving God they will understand the greatest commission we all have been created to pursue. If your life is positively impacted by the message you receive consider the lives of others who you can touch in your family, your Church ministry and even in your workplace through the minimal cost for the purchase of this book.

A Message to You is the first gift you can intentionally unleash into the universe as you continue to discover the many gifts God created in you.
